

a wrong one for me ever those what to do about it, I need not make a scandal. But to write it is inimous.

delay, somewhere on the way before these envelopes reached me, I could not send them instantly. But the moment they did reach me, I signed all but one dozen, which I retained with the rest

- thinking there might be a few persons
with whom your names alone might be more potent than if joined with mine.

I enclose for
Mr. Jackson & your elves to transmit to Mr. Thompson $50.

I am confident there
can be no difficulty in raising a good

$1000, among them that had with him the vintage of
'35.

I have asked for an Ex. Com. Meeting on Tuesday, at 12 o'clock at the Office

Anne sends our kindest regards. We are packing off,
with all convenient
speed.

Mr. Tollen has been beseeching our friend P. to forbear

his attacks on Abolition ists & to attack the Rep-
-ar. instead. It was an excellent letter, I will, I hope be of service to him.

It it does not matter to the cause, nor to our Selves, now, - at this time of day, what course he takes - (he has been two years & more on
I shall go to Mexico here but the friends - nor will it be well to go further. AMM.
